

The New Richmond Reader

Issue 20

October 2019

Your Literary News from the Heart of the Karoo

October 19, 2019.

Dear Karoosters,

Well its tick tock as we pack our bags for the big trek to Richmond there by die ou Karoo. I have attached a programme which is pretty final and there are a few changes to earlier notions which were sent out. In all of our attention to detail we neglected the major event, other than BoekBedonnerd, that being Rugby World Cup! So you will notice that we commence proceedings a little earlier on the Saturday morning, hard for those who might have held up the bar on the night before, so that we are truly done and dusted for the 10:00 kick off.

This weekend of course, we have the hopefully minor issue of Japan who are ready and willing to engage the Boks flat out but making sure to avoid any contact with the likes of a Vermeulen, duToit or Etsebeth. It will be a super game and hopefully a winner for us.

Once the rugby is done and dusted, we can all take in the afternoon's entertainment provided by the Richmonds, highlighted by the Richmond Mile Road Race with a R2000 first prize.

By Special request from many regular BookBedonnerd visitors, Saturday night dinner is a street affair, and anything is possible! See you there!

Drive safely and if you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact either Darryl or me, Peter.

Forever BookBedonnerd.....

Darryl 081-391-8689

Peter 082-941-1572